(f) Application for all transfers between clubs under the jurisdiction of the USGAA must be made on an Official Transfer Form which has been prepared by USGAA and can be obtained from the Co. Secretary or Divisional Secretary

(g) The USGAA will send a Representative to Camogie Congress each year

27. A club, which is entitled to 2 votes at USGAA Convention, may cast its two votes through one club delegate when it does not have its full quota of delegates at Co Convention.

This concession applies only at USGAA Convention.

Developmental clubs with less than 13 Registered Players do not have Voting Rights at USGAA Convention or EGMs.

28. A club's application for affiliation to the USGAA will not be accepted if there are any outstanding debts owed to the USGAA or to the Divisional Board.

29. Officers of the Divisional Boards shall remove themselves from any disciplinary hearing involving their own club. USGAA officers shall remove themselves from any disciplinary hearing involving a club from their own Division.

30. A new Bye-Law may be enacted, at a USGAA Convention, by a simple majority of those present, entitled to vote and voting. To be successful, at a USGAA Convention, a motion to delete or amend an existing Bye-Law requires a three-fifths majority of those present, entitled to vote and voting.

The Pre-playoff meeting cannot accept or propose Bye-laws or Regulations.

31. Minutes from USGAA/Divisional Chair meetings be published on USGAA website or distributed to Divisional Secretaries within seven days of the meeting or sooner if immediate action is required by clubs/divisions from matters discussed at the meeting

ALL-IRELAND TICKETS

32. All Ireland hurling and football tickets shall be distributed to the Divisions on a percentage basis depending on the total registered clubs in the Division.

Developmental clubs with less than 13 Registered Players are not included in count of “total registered clubs”.

NCGAA

33. The National Collegiate Gaelic Athletic Association (NCGAA) will elect its own Board, appoint its own subcommittees and govern its own affairs in accordance with its by-laws and regulations which will be ratified by the USGAA following the NCGAA convention each year.
34. NCGAA players must register in the USGAA Registration system through the USGAA Divisional registrar and pay the GAA membership fee as outlined in Byelaw 12(b).

Remaining USGAA club registration fee and player registration fee, as outlined in Byelaw 12(a), to be waived.

However, if an NCGAA player is registered with a USGAA club, the full USGAA player registration fee would need to be paid.

A Bye-Law must not be contrary to any rule in the Official Guide, unless sanctioned by Central Council. Such a Byelaw requires Ratification by Central Council before it becomes effective.

N.B. Please ensure that the USGAA complies with the Civil Authorities with regard to Child Protection Regulations.
